Texans for Lawsuit Reform Honors Senator Tommy Williams

THE WOODLANDS - State Senator Tommy Williams (R-The Woodlands) was recently recognized for his leadership role in the 81st Texas Legislature by Texans for Lawsuit Reform (TLR). Dick Trabulsi, president of Texans for Lawsuit Reform, presented the award at a luncheon honoring the senator's role and impact on protecting Texas civil justice reforms.

"All people of Texas benefit from Senator Williams' leadership and competence, said Dick Trabulsi. Whenever there is meaningful legislation in the Texas Senate, Senator Williams is at the center of it. We saw this numerous times during the last legislative session."

Texans for Lawsuit Reform was founded in 1993 and has grown into the largest state based civil justice advocacy group in the nation with more than 16,000 individual supporters in 857 town and cities, representing 1, 266 different trades, businesses and professions.

"I am honored to receive this award and recognition from TLR," said Sen. Williams. "Many of the lawsuit reforms we achieved during the past decade were under attack this session, so this award is especially significant. We played vigorous defense, and were able to keep important tort reforms gained during this decade."

Senator Williams represents Senate District 4 covering all or portions of Jefferson, Orange, Chambers, Liberty, Harris and Montgomery Counties. Williams serves as Chairman of the Senate Administration Committee and as a member of the Finance, Education, International Relations & Trade and State Preservation Board.
