Senator Williams Honored for Legislative Achievement

Receives Texas Taxpayers and Research Association Award

AUSTIN – Senator Tommy Williams (R-The Woodlands) was honored recently with the Legislative Achievement Award from The Texas Taxpayers and Research Association (TTARA).

The award recognized Sen. Williams' efforts in crafting and passing landmark property tax reform legislation in the 81st Legislative Session, including three constitutional amendments approved by Texas voters on November 3, 2009.

"Our Texas homeowners needed protections against property tax appraisal abuses, and I was proud to sponsor this critical reform package," Senator Williams said.

The Texas Taxpayers and Research Association reports the legislative changes represent the most significant reforms since the current system of property tax administration was adopted thirty years ago.

The award presented at the association's annual conference read in part:

As a result of your efforts, all Texas taxpayers will benefit from a more equitable and efficient system of property tax administration.
