Senator Creighton Supports Fiscally Conservative State Budget

AUSTIN, TX – Today, the Texas Senate unanimously passed, Senate Bill 1, the state budget. The budget funds the 2020-2021 biennium.

“The Texas economy is strong, partly because we are committed to conservative, balanced budgets, and I am proud of the fiscally responsible budget the Senate passed today. While Washington, D.C. and other states enable runaway spending, Texas counts every dollar,” said Senator Creighton. “I can assure Texans that today’s budget limits the growth of government, is a wise use of Texas tax dollars, and keep Texas the best place to start a business and raise a family.”

Senate Bill 1 Highlights:

- Fully funds our commitment to border security
- Includes $2.7 billion to reduce local property taxes
- Is within the Constitutional Spending Limit
- Continues our commitment to ‘Pay-as-you-go’
- Is well below population and inflation growth
