Sen. Donna Campbell Appointed to Sunset Advisory Commission
New Braunfels Senator Will Take Over Term Begun by Sen. Dan Patrick

AUSTIN-- State Senator Donna Campbell expressed her willingness to serve the taxpayers of Texas as the newest member of the Sunset Advisory Commission on Wednesday. She will take over the remainder of Sen. Patrick's term, which ends on September 1, 2015.

"Transparency and accountability are the hallmarks of good government, and I am honored that the Lieutenant Governor has entrusted me to serve the people in this capacity. I look forward to working with my colleagues on the Sunset Advisory Commission to ensure our tax dollars are spent efficiently and to eliminate waste and duplicity in state government."
