AUSTIN, TX - State Senator Morgan LaMantia (D-South Padre Island) released the following statement on being selected to serve on the Senate Committee on Education, the Senate Committee on State Affairs, the Senate Committee on Health and Human Services, and the Senate Committee on Nominations.

"I am honored to have the opportunity to serve on the Senate Committees on Education, State Affairs, Health and Human Services, and Nominations. I want to thank Lieutenant Governor Dan Patrick for these thoughtful committee assignments, and for entrusting me with such important responsibilities. I am excited to work alongside my colleagues on some of the most significant issues facing the Texas Legislature.

While the task ahead may be challenging, my team and I are confident that our resilience and dedication will be impactful. We look forward to contributing to the progress made during the 88th Legislative Session. With the support of our community and constituents, we are eager to represent the hard-working people of Senate District 27. By working together, we can ensure our success."
